Deputy CEO

Seeking Strategic Leader for Prestigious Bay Area Nonprofit

Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy is hiring a Deputy Chief Executive Officer (Deputy CEO). We are looking for a mission-driven, results-oriented, collaborative, creative and visionary Deputy CEO. This role serves as a strategic thought partner with the President and Chief Executive Officer and a leader on our Executive Team. They will help to ensure alignment across the Parks Conservancy organization to our strategic vision, priorities and values.

The Deputy CEO manages four Park Conservancy programmatic areas that focus on advancing our mission through activities and programming that connects communities to the Golden Gate National Recreation Area, and ensures the protection and preservation of these national parklands forever. The Deputy CEO works closely with those programmatic leaders to create partnerships with agencies and community organizations to educate the public about the parks and ensure that the parks are accessible to all members of the community.

They will play a critical role in supporting organizational change management, strategic shifts in alignment with our strategic direction and overall effective leadership across the Parks Conservancy. Along with the other members of the Executive Team, the Deputy CEO ensures that all internal policies and procedures are in line with the Park Conservancy values of Community Care, Creating Belonging, Learning and Growth, and Working with Purpose.

ABOUT THE GOLDEN GATE NATIONAL PARKS CONSERVANCY

At the Bay Area's doorstep are some of the most beautiful and diverse national park sites anywhere. The Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy (Parks Conservancy) has led the transformation and restoration of Northern California's largest national park, the Golden Gate National Recreation Area - encompassing over 80,000 acres north and south of the Golden Gate Bridge. As the nonprofit partner to the National Park Service, we have supported building of new national park sites and visitor centers, rehabilitated historic buildings, restored critical habitat areas, created magnificent park trails and overlooks and enhanced visitor experience through partnerships with artists, educators and other community service organizations throughout the Bay Area. The Parks Conservancy is an international leader in nonprofit conservation, preservation and programming.

The parklands include iconic places like Alcatraz Island, Muir Woods National Monument, Fort Point National Historic Site, Ocean Beach, the Presidio, and Crissy Field, each representing the idea that national parks are for everyone. Our 300+ employees are dedicated to connecting people to these incredible resources by enhancing the public's awareness and providing opportunities for enjoyment and stewardship of these incredible places. Our organization's future is focused on centering and engaging community voices in the co-design of park programs and initiatives that spark engagement around important contemporary issues such as climate change, racial and social justice and barriers to equitable park visitation. The Parks Conservancy has had 40 years of extraordinary success, and is now looking to establish
